

Training of Trainers (TOT)

on Juvenile Justice System for Police Officers (Child Welfare Officers)
From 23rd to 25th April, 2012 & 26th to 28th April, 2012
at Nyaya Sadan, Ranchi

As per the direction of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in "Sampurna Beherua Case" JHALSA in association with UNICEF, Ranchi organized Training of Trainers (TOT) programme for Police Officers / Child Welfare Officers in two batches i.e from 23rd to 25th April, 2012 and 26th to 28th April, 2012 at Nyaya Sadan, Ranchi.

In response to this, Crime Investigation Department (CID), the nodal department for SJPU in Jharkhand state has designated 455 Police officials as Child Welfare Officials (CWOs) at every police stations including rail police to constitute SJPU across the state. In this context Jharkhand State Legal Services Authority has come at the forefront to create awareness amongst the newly designated Child Welfare Officers of Jharkhand. JHALSA in association with UNICEF, Jharkhand has organised this training to equip all these CWOs, Advocates with substantial provisions of JJ Act, so that they may be able to implement the provisions of the Act in the best interest and for the protection of juveniles in conflict with law as well as children in need of care and protection.

Objective

- ❖ To create and develop a cadre of Resource persons at District level on Juvenile Justice System covering role of police and other child protection issues.
- ❖ To develop District plan for further training and orientation of CWOs at District level.

Methodology

❖ Participants

The training program was organized in two batches comprising of 30 participants. The first batch started from 23rd April'12 to 25th April'12 and second batch from 26th April'12 to 28th April'12.

The participants were mainly Police Inspector, Advocates of DLSA (District Legal Services Authority) and civil society members i.e. representatives of ngos & members of Child Welfare Committees (CWC) and Juvenile Justice Boards (JJBs). The participants were called from diverse group so that the whole process should be participatory and community based, which is an essential mandate of SJPU also.

During the programme the enthusiasm and participation of participants were very good and they actually agreed on the seriousness and criticality of the issue and role of police, civil society & other stakeholders.

❖ Resource Persons

For the programme three national level resource persons were invited Mr. Raaj Mangal Prasad, Chairperson, CWC Delhi, Ms. Bharti Ali and Ms. Praveena Nair, HAQ, center of child rights.

❖ Pedagogy

The training programme was organized in a participatory manner where all participants were divided into small group comprising police inspector, advocates and civil society members to facilitate bonding in the group. Sharing of feelings as child, presentations, group discussions and pre & post test were the tools of the training programmes.
