Lok adalat balm for justice in Ranchi

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Ranchi, Aug. 6: The look on the face of 65-year-old Usha Rani said it all.

The widow, finally managed to cash in an investment of Rs 10,000 that was made by her late husband more than two decades ago.

Rani, who stumbled upon the non-redeemed Unit Trust of India investment certificate in an old file earlier this year, had approached the Jharkhand Legal Services Authority (Jhalsa) to recover the money in April. Jhalsa took up the matter for discussion with Unit Trust and it was decided that Rani would be duly paid off.

A content Rani, who was handed over a cheque of Rs 23,500 here, was one of the many beneficiaries at the 13th lok adalat, which was inaugu-

High court legal service committee chairman Justice Prasant Srivastav, who was present on the occasion, said lok adalats were the best way to settle legal disputes out of court.

"The concept of lok adalat ... putes amicably. The litigants in this process are also are able to save precious time and resources, which would otherwise have been dedicated to fighting long-drawn legal battles," Srivastav said.

Justice Merathia added that since 2003, Jhalsa had decid-

Lok adalat disposes of around one lakh cases in past five years

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Ranchi: Around one lakh cases in the past five years and nearly 4,000 cases in the past six months were disposed of through lok adalats in Jharkhand, thus reducigg the burden on the judiciary.

The figures were given by Justice R K Merathia, the executive chairman of Jharkhand High Court Legal Service Authority (JHALSA) during the inauguration of 18th Lok Adalat held on the premises of the high court.

Justice Merathia said since 2003 total of 98,611 cases were settled in the lok adalat held in different parts of the state, which show the success of such courts in the state.
